Subject: Sidewalk Vendors, Street Characters, CD Vendors

FYI – see the attached articles on street characters in NYC and panhandlers in Orange County. The Blvd has had assaults from street characters, a stabbing death by a homeless person, and other issues considered detrimental to public safety. With the gathering of tourists on a daily basis, the Blvd could also be considered a soft target for terrorism. The Blvd has street characters walking around with masks and no way to identify them if they cause a disturbance. I have cc'd our city representatives who are well aware of these issues with the hope something can be done B4 there is a major incident. Thx
